61 During doggie-style sex, lean on one arm, reach back, and scratch his boys in a circular motion.

62 Place your fist knuckles-up against the area right behind his testicles. Quickly shake your fist to send powerful vibrations into his prostate gland (aka, the male G-spot).

65 Use both sides of your tongue during oral: the bumpy top and the slick bottom.

66 Stand behind him, and stroke his penis. This positions your palm flat against his member’s sensitive underside, the same way he grips it when he masturbates. Then do a few things he can’t do himself, like whisper in his ear or kiss his back.

67 While giving him oral, form a ring with your thumb and forefinger at the base of his penis, and pull down so the skin of the shaft becomes taut and extrasensitive. Plus, the pressure traps blood there, adding to the intensity.
